Date Adjusted due to Holiday or Weekend*

All Applications are due by 12:00pm on deadline day.

After the internal application review meeting, the applicant may be asked for additional application materials to form a complete application. The applicant will have until that Friday to submit materials.

An application is not deemed to be complete until the building official has made a formal zoning law determination.

The applicant will receive written notification of their scheduled meeting. If your application is deemed incomplete, it will not be placed on an agenda until the requested information has been submitted to the Town.
