

Paul Hagen Chicken Barbeque Benefit

March 19, 2016

Tickets are $9.00

12:00 pm until gone

Paul has been a long time deputy that has worked this region for years. He is currently undergoing extensive therapy for his colon cancer and the bills are mounting.

The Paul Hagen chicken BBQ will be held on March 19th at the Bristol Volunteer Fire Department at 4350 State Route 64. Dinners will be served from 12:00pm until they are gone and will include delicious fresh chicken prepared by the Victor Fire Department, coleslaw, salt potatoes, roll and butter. In addition to the food there will be a 50/50 raffle, baked goods and specially designed t-shirts for the event.

Pre-Sale tickets are available at the Town Hall, 6740 County Road 32, or call with questions 229-2400.